CHAPTER 89.

AN ACT to amend section 931 Wisconsin statutes of 1898, relating to libraries.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Common council may authorize board of education to expend library tax.

SECTION 1. Section 931 of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898 is hereby amended by adding at the end of said section the following: provided, that in lieu of supporting and maintaining such a public library and reading room the common council of every city of the classes named, having a board of education, may, when deemed best for the interests of the city, levy such tax and authorize the board of education of such city to apply and expend the same in aid of the maintenance of any secular or non-sectarian public library and reading room free to all inhabitants of such city, already established and maintained therein by any society, association or corporation, and the city treasurer shall pay on the order of such board of education to such society, association or corporation, the money so raised for such aid out of such library tax fund.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 30, 1899.
